was an entire absence of demonstrators on the part of the Democrats when he started on the trip to Indianapolis today. The party occupied a sleeper on the Denver Burlington limited, which left here a few minutes after 8 o'clock and will arrive between 8 and 9 o'clock tomorrow. It was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan and their son, Gov. Thomas C. Bryan, of Colorado, and Mrs. Thomas John L. Martin, secretary-at-arm of the National Committee. Bryan was accompanied by a photographer and Gov. Thomas's secretary.

A number of Bryan's friends were at the station, but there was no crush and no demands for a speech. The

The train was delayed as it rolled in, and Bryan stepped out onto the platform. Before the train was started, he turned back to shake hands with people who were climbing over the side of the car. He shook the hand of Bryan, who smilingly returned the salute. A tall and cordially greeted each one who came up to him. When the switch engine intervened with the procedure, Bryan was hastily sought to gain a foothold in the steps until cautioned of the danger.

GREATEST STOCK FARM.
BUTLER LOOKS TO CALIFORNIA.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—The Chronicle states that James Butler, a New York millionaire, will probably soon establish in this State a stock farm at a cost of $500,000. It will not be exceeded by any horse-breeding establishment in America, and will be under the management of Tom Keating. While Butler's present stable of pacers and trotters is a very strong one, it is the calculation to purchase half a score of the most promising horses obtainable. These are all to be shipped to California to be wintered and to be prepared for the next season. The station direct was sent out here last year. He will be placed at the head of the proposed breeding farm. Gayton will also be retained for the California venture.

Butler is so well pleased with the showing of the pacers, Bonnie Direct, Wagoner and Jany, and the trotter, Gayton that all preliminary arrangements have been concluded for a campaign in 1907. He will acquire a wide following of the grand circuit.

Missionaries in China Considered a Pest.

Views of an Educated Celestial on "Velvet-shod Christians."

(By Charles Theodore Murray, in a letter to the Pittsburgh Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, July 16.—In company with a few friends I dined at a Chinese restaurant the other day. The only excuse was the desire of a couple of ladies to eat a regular Chinese dinner. It is a desire that usually strikes people not once in a lifetime, and I had been there before. A Chinese dinner is very satisfactory, and my first meal, four years ago, has lasted me ever since.

What was of much more interest to me was the conversation of a well-informed Chinaman who served us. Of course, we talked about the present situation in the Flowery Kingdom. This man was not trying to destroy your faith, but he was very much interested in the situation.

"We are pretty fairly well informed here about what is going on at home," he said. "We are in close touch with the outside world, and we are very much interested in the situation."

"While our people are not great converts as a class, we are in close touch with the outside world, and we are very much interested in the situation."

The Democrats at Indianapolis have succeeded in demonstrating that there is one thing sadder than a man without a party, and that is a man without an issue. (Exchange. Wrong: one thing sadder yet—a man and party without an issue!)

CURE BEGINS WITH FIRST INHALATION.

It reaches the sore spot, it heals the raw place, it goes to the seat of the disease. It penetrates obstructions, places where doctors cannot reach. It takes into the sinuses, which cannot reach. It is a tonic to the whole system. Better than medicine. Better than doctors. Better than a good sunny climate. Better than anything have ever tried.

eddy exists for this condition. The reason is that the overstrain does not border on rupture, and this remedy is very much like that which is applied in the case of an overworked human frame—namely, rest.

For overworked tools recover their vitality better than any other. Of course, the length of time required for this rest varies with different metals and has the amount of strain to which they have been subjected.

Hard metals, such as iron and steel, use up one and two years' time in the process. On the other hand, soft metals, like lead, retain their cohesive force longer and also require less rest.

BUSINESS.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES.

RHODESIA GOLD.

Not since March of last year has Rhodesia had such a good gold output as in May last. The returns to the Rhodesian Chamber of Mines give a total production of 422 ounces. This compares with 1446 ounces in April and 426 ounces in March. In March, 1929, the only month when the total production of the country reached 544 ounces. The total production of the present year up to the end of May is 25,775 ounces, against 20,185 ounces in the same period of last year.

COMMERCIAL.

CURED FRUIT.

The demand for apricots shows some improvement, and the California Fruit Grower, speaking of the San Francisco market, prices on boxed goods are about the same as one week ago, but such have been advanced, owing to the heavy demand for extra dry fruit packed in sacks. One or two large packers are quoting bags and 50-pound boxes at the same price and only a slight advance for fruit packed in 25-pound boxes. There should be a greater difference in price between apricots in sacks and 50-pound boxes than in the case of a very low, light local business, but dealers are buying in the market. The large buyers are alive to the fact that while California will turn out a good many carloads of apricots this season, the quantity of bright, strictly choice fruit will not be heavy, and as for fancy fruit, the market crop in the Santa Clara Valley will have to supply it. This market on cured apricots is a very hot one. Royals look ready for shipment, with choice Moorpark at $16 to $18. There is no outside demand for cured peaches at the moment. Local dealers and packers are buying in the San Joaquin Valley, paying 4c for standard and 4c for choice. There are no inclinations to sell their peaches these hot days at the low prices the trade are naming. Other lines are quiet.

FOREIGN CITRUS FRUIT.

The quantities of lemons and oranges in boxes, on the way to America on the date July 21 for the last three years are as follows:

	1928	1929	1930
Lemons	15,000	172,000	107,000
Oranges	500	52,000	52,000

Of lemons in port to be sold July 21 there were 61,000 boxes.

PRUNES CLASSIFIED. The Prune Association has decided in favor of two classes for cured prunes. All prunes unwashed, unskinned, and unpeeled will be known as "first quality." All showing cracks or imperfections will be "second quality."

GENERAL BUSINESS TOPICS.

COPPER OUTLOOK.

Speaking of the outlook for a good market for copper, Bradstreet's says: "The demand for copper is increasing steadily. The production of the United States for the first six months, as reported by John Stanton of New York, was 4,063 tons, an increase of only 10,000 tons over the figures for the same period of 1929. The gain being only one percent, or less than one percent. Another circumstance of great importance is the enormous exports of copper from the United States, which amounted to 2,777 tons during the half year, absorbing 67 percent of the output during the period under consideration and representing an increase of 11,000 tons over the first half of 1929. In spite, however, of the large exports from this country, stock of copper held abroad or in transit have not increased, but have actually diminished, a result attributed to the steady use of copper in connection with electrical equipment and in the construction of ships and the movement of war materials, and with the prospect of increased activity in all these directions. It is held that the demand for copper is likely to revise their opinions and come to the American market for supplies with more readiness and with less regard to price, the inference being that an advance in the current quotations is inevitable."

Citrus-fruit Shipments.

There were shipped East on Saturday and Sunday from California 23 carloads of oranges and ten of lemons, making a total of all citrus fruits for the season of 17,414 carloads.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKETS.

There are a great many changes in stored meats. It is impossible to classify these, as they go all sorts of ways. Reference is had to the list.

Bovine. Beef is still very dull. Buyers are slow to touch apricots at 54 to 6 cents for good to choice ungraded stock packed in sacks. No peaches are offered here yet.

Poultry. Ducks are plentiful and very weak. Hens are steady. The demand is for immediate use. Prices are likely to rise steadily some time, and that takes all speculation out of the market. Local damaged stock sells at 18 in a small way.

Poultry. Hens are weak. Very good but not steady. Early Hens sell at 45 cents, some choice northern to come in will be paid at 50 cents.

Fruit. Peaches are active. Peaches develop no quotable change. Prunes, apples and pears are all dearer. Apples range from $1.15 to $1.25 for good to choice.
